Retreat of School of Communication

In order to enhance the teaching quality, Prof. Scarlet Tso, Dean of School of Communication, invited all teaching staff of the School to a working luncheon to discuss and coordinate teaching issues at the Regal Riverside Hotel, Shatin. During the discussion, professors of the School shared their teaching experience and discussed the arrangement for the coming semester. Prof. Tso expressed her sincere gratitude to all staff and gave a warm welcome to the new teachers. It is hoped that with the support and efforts from the faculty, the School will create a better teaching and learning environment for its future development.
