HSMC Received over $8 million from RGC for 2018/19

In the 2018/19 exercise, Hang Seng Management College (HSMC) has secured from the Research Grants Council (RGC) a total funding of HK$8.48 million for 13 projects.

In the 2018/19 exercise, RGC has approved HK$38 million for a total of 47 projects under three schemes, namely the Faculty Development Scheme (FDS), the Inter-institutional Development Scheme (IIDS) and the Institutional Development Scheme (IDS). HSMC has secured a total funding of HK$8.48 million for 11 FDS projects and 2 IIDS projects. The total number of approved projects and approved FDS projects are the highest among eligible institutions.

Professor Y V Hui, Vice-President (Academic and Research) said, “The encouraging result clearly demonstrates our commitment and continuous effort to pursue excellence in research. I would like to congratulate Principal Investigators of supported projects for their success and thank them for their effort and hard work in preparing quality proposals. “

About HSMC:

Hang Seng Management College (HSMC) was restructured from the former Hang Seng School of Commerce and was established in 2010 as a non-profit, private university-level institution, with five Schools (Business, Communication, Decision Sciences, Humanities & Social Science, and Translation) and around 5,000 full-time students. Adopting the “Liberal + Professional” education model which incorporates the iGPS “desired graduate attributes” framework, HSMC is a residential institution which puts quality teaching and students’ all-round development as its highest priorities. Aspiring to be a leading private liberal-arts-oriented university in the region, HSMC features top-quality faculty members, award-winning green campus facilities, innovative degree programmes, impactful research on corporate sustainability, and excellent student support services, with the aim of nurturing young talents with critical thinking, innovative minds, caring attitude, moral values and social responsibility.
