Results Announcement of the HSUHK Personal Finance Planning Competition 2022

To recognise secondary schools' students who have outstanding performance in the HSUHK Personal Finance Planning Competition 2022, the School of Business (SBUS) and the Department of Economics and Finance of The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) hosted the awards presentation ceremony and announced the results on 8 July 2022 (Friday), at Fung Yiu King Hall at the S H Ho Academic Building, HSUHK, officiating by Dr Thomas LEUNG, Acting Dean of the School of Business, HSUHK.

Launching from March to May 2022, The Personal Finance Planning Competition takes “If e-payment is not mastered well, then...” as the theme. More than 10 teams of students from different secondary schools participated and were assessed by a panel of judges:

- Mr. Philip CHENG - Executive Director – Investment, Runnvoation - Head of Ecosystem and Partnership
- Miss Boanne CHEUNG - Influencer & Miss Hong Kong 2017
- Ms Elaine SHIU, Hong Kong Outstanding Young Entrepreneur
- Mr Peter YAU, Manager, Investor and Financial Education Council (IFEC)

The winning teams were announced during the Ceremony for the following awards and prizes:

Categories	Award	Awardee(s)
Champion	$6,000- Cash	Hong Kong Chinese Women's Club College
First Runner-up	$4,000- Cash	Kiangsu-Chekiang College (Shatin)
Second Runner-up	$3,000- Cash	Lock Tao Secondary School
3 Merits Prizes	$1,000- Cash each	St. Teresa Secondary School, Christian Alliance SW Chan Memorial College, and Heung To Middle School (TSW)

The theme of the HSUHK Personal Finance Planning Competition 2022 is: “Be an e-Payment System Master”. Participating teams from secondary schools are required to develop a short audio/video story. The objective is to encourage secondary school students to investigate the possible consequences of not properly mastering e-payment processes or platform features and highlight the consequences and reasons behind. They should propose how to become an e-payment master as well.

Before the submission, a discussion forum on “Be a Smart e-Payment System User” was held where guest speakers and experts provided insights on the theme.

The series of activity aims to raise the awareness among young people of the potential financial traps during their secondary school and university life and learn about the importance of financial literacy and independence to be smart teenagers.
