HSUHK Presents Long Service Award to Loyal Staff

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) held the Second Long Service Award Presentation Ceremony today (10 January) to recognise staff members who have served HSUHK for at least a decade and to appreciate their contribution and dedication to the University. This year, a total of 23 staff members were awarded for their 10, 15, 25 or 30 years of service to HSUHK.

Professor Simon Ho, President of HSUHK, expressed his gratitude to the awardees and thanked them for their years of outstanding service for the advancement of the University. "I deeply appreciate the resilience of our colleagues in the face of difficulties and their spirit of 'Where there is a will, there is a way', which has enabled the University to sustain its operation during the pandemic. We all place the University's development as our top priority, together with our mutual trust and respect, which have made the professional team we have today." He encouraged colleagues to continue to uphold their professionalism under the 'Liberal + Professional' education model.

Ms Mable Yu from the Finance Office, the recipient of the 30 years of Long Service Award, witnessed the milestone of HSUHK's university title attainment. She was grateful to have met the best colleagues and made countless precious memories together. "I was a dance instructor for students and their stage performance brought me a sense of success. I have also witnessed graduates coming back to work at HSUHK, showing their sense of belonging to their alma mater."

Having served HSUHK for 25 years, Ms Joey Leung from the President's Office treated HSUHK as her family. She was delighted to see colleagues and students having close relationships and actively involving in campus life. "In the past, when there were not many offices or departments, colleagues gathered regularly and even got to know parents of each other. Working at HSUHK is part of my life and gives me a sense of security. I would keep my good working attitude until the day of my honourable retirement, and will be proud to tell others that I have worked at HSUHK."
