HSUHK and National Chung Hsing University launches academic partnership

Professor Jan Fuh-Jyh, President of National Chung Hsing University (NCHU) in Taiwan, led a delegation to visit The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) recently to explore potential collaboration opportunities between the two universities.

The delegation was warmly received by Professor Simon S M Ho, President of HSUHK, Professor Jeanne Fu, Acting Vice-President (Learning and Student Experience), and Dr James Chang and Dr Sammy Hu of the School of Communication.

After a warm welcome and introduction of HSUHK by President Ho, both parties engaged in active discussions on potential collaboration opportunities. A Memorandum of Understanding between the two universities will be signed to facilitate academic and student exchanges. President Ho expressed that his last visit to NCHU about 10 years ago has led to good connections with the institution. President Jan said NCHU would encourage more students to study or exchange at HSUHK.

The visit was concluded with a campus tour led by President Ho and other HSUHK representatives to the facilities in the Lee Quo Wei Academic Building, the School of Communication's TV Production Centre, the Central Plaza and the Wei Lun Square. The delegation had a glimpse of the campus life and cutting-edge teaching facilities at HSUHK. The visit has laid the foundation for more future collaborative initiatives, which will help foster a rich and diverse academic environment for both universities.

About The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) is a non-profit private liberal-arts-oriented university with five Schools (Business, Communication, Decision Sciences, Humanities and Social Science, and Translation and Foreign Languages) and over 6,000 full-time students. Adopting the unique “Liberal + Professional” education model, HSUHK aims to nurture young talent with critical thinking, innovative minds, caring attitudes, moral values, and social responsibility.

Aspiring to be a leading private university in the region, HSUHK features a primary focus on undergraduate education, top-quality faculty members, award-winning green campus facilities, innovative degree programmes, unique residential college system combining living and learning, interactive small class teaching, very close student-teacher relationship, RGC-funded impactful research, and excellent student development/support services. HSUHK is listed the 7th (overall) in the ASEAN+ region, the 1st in the Greater China region, and the 1st in Employability as per the 2023 AppliedHE ASEAN+ private university assessment by the Singapore-based AppliedHE. It is also listed among the top 200 worldwide on “Quality Education” and “Decent Work and Economic Growth” in the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021.
