

Press Release – For Immediate Release

To: Assignment Editor/Editor of Education and Local News Sections

3 April 2025

HSUHK signs MoU with Hertford College at University of Oxford

Professor Simon Ho, President of The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK), and Professor Joshua Mok, Provost and Vice-President (Academic and Research) who are currently in the UK, signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Hertford College at the University of Oxford, on 2 April 2025, to enhance collaboration in academic exchange and research between the two institutions.

During their visit to the UK, Professor Ho and Professor Mok visited the Oxford Global Society at Wolfson College of the University of Oxford to explore opportunities for programme collaboration in the fields of philosophy, politics and economics. They also visited the School of Management at University College London, where the two universities will co-host a postgraduate summer school programme in June 2025. Professor Ho also shared insights on promoting sustainability leadership and education at the Institute of Education at University College London.

In response to the Hong Kong government's ongoing push for the internationalisation of higher education, HSUHK is collaborating with the Centre for Global Higher Education at the University of Oxford to organise the Annual Conference of the Centre for Global Higher Education from 3 to 4 April 2025 in Oxford. Professor Ho and Professor Mok will engage in a panel discussion which will examine how growing geopolitical issues are affecting international student mobility and international academic collaborations. Leading scholars from Japan, Korea, Mainland China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and the UK will also join the panel discussion. Professor Ho will also deliver a speech to promote the latest developments in Hong Kong as a leading international higher education hub and share the unique "Liberal + Professional" education model of HSUHK.

-END-

香港恒生大學
THE HANG SENG UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Photo:

Photo caption: Professor Simon Ho (second from right) signs an MoU with Professor Patrick Roche, Interim Principal of Hertford College at the University of Oxford (third from left).

Photo Download: Link

About The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) is a non-profit private liberal-arts oriented university with five Schools (Business, Communication, Decision Sciences, Humanities and Social Science, and Translation and Foreign Languages) and over 6,700 full-time undergraduate and postgraduate students. Adopting the unique “Liberal + Professional” education model, HSUHK aims to nurture young talent with critical thinking, innovative minds, caring attitudes, moral values and social responsibility.

Aspiring to be a leading private university in the region, HSUHK features a primary focus on undergraduate education, top-quality faculty members, award-winning green campus facilities, innovative degree programmes, unique residential college system combining living and learning, interactive small class teaching, very close student-teacher relationship, RGC-funded impactful research, and excellent student development/support services. HSUHK is listed the 7th (overall) in the ASEAN+ region, the 1st in the Greater China region, and the 1st in Employability as per the 2023 AppliedHE ASEAN+ private university assessment by the Singapore-based AppliedHE. It is also listed among the top 200 worldwide on “Quality Education” and “Decent Work and Economic Growth” in the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021.