HSUHK Autumn Careers Fair offers over 1,000 job opportunities for students

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) held the Autumn Careers Fair 2025 on campus today (22 September). Themed “Be Connected”, the Fair brought together more than 50 prestigious local and international companies, as well as government bureaus and departments. Spanning diverse sectors such as accounting, banking and finance, information technology, retail, and transportation logistics, this year’s Careers Fair fostered connections between HSUHK students and employers from varied backgrounds. Alongside the latest employment insights and guidance for their career paths, over 1,000 local and international full-time and internship opportunities were offered to HSUHK students.

The HSUHK Autumn Careers Fair also partnered with the Civil Service Bureau to host a “Government Recruitment Day”, which featured government bureaus and departments, including various disciplined services, the Census and Statistics Department, the Digital Policy Office, and the Radio Television Hong Kong and provided on-site written tests and recruitment seminars.

In his opening remarks, Professor Simon Ho, President of HSUHK, welcomed prospective employers of HSUHK students and expressed gratitude to government and industry partners for their continued support. He emphasised that the Careers Fair stands a testament of the University’s commitment to students’ professional growth and development. He noted that in the AI area, the nature of work is evolving faster than ever, adding, “At HSUHK, we prepare our students not just for the jobs of today, but for the unknowns of tomorrow.”

About The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) is a non-profit private liberal-arts-oriented university with six Schools (Business, Communication, Decision Sciences, Humanities and Social Science, Translation and Foreign Languages, and Transdisciplinary Studies), and over 7,000 full-time undergraduate and postgraduate students. With its unique “Liberal + Professional” education model, HSUHK nurtures young talent with critical thinking, innovative minds, caring attitudes, moral values and social responsibility.

Aspiring to be a leading private university in the region, HSUHK prioritises stellar undergraduate education, top-quality faculty members, award-winning green campus facilities, innovative degree programmes, a unique residential college system that combines living and learning, interactive small-class teaching, close student-teacher relationships, impactful research, and excellent student development and support services.

HSUHK also ranked 7th (overall) in the ASEAN+ region, the 1st in the Greater China region, the 1st in Employability, the 3rd in Research and the 5th in Community Engagement as per the 2023 AppliedHE ASEAN+ private university ranking by the Singapore-based AppliedHE. Additionally, HSUHK was ranked among the top 200 worldwide on “Quality Education” and “Decent Work and Economic Growth” in the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021.

HSUHK was recognised in the 2025 Top Universities and Top Scientists Rankings conducted by international academic platform, Research.com, and was ranked 22nd in Social Sciences and Humanities, and 33rd in Economics and Finance among the top universities in China. The University’s MSc in Global Supply Chain Management programme was ranked 84th globally in the QS International Trade Rankings 2025 announced by Quacquarelli Symonds (QS). The programme was also ranked 7th in the Greater China region and 4th in Hong Kong. The School of Business obtained AACSB International accreditation, a distinction achieved by only 6% of the world’s leading business schools.
