HSUHK Careers Fair draws over 120 enterprises and government departments Offering more than 1,500 employment opportunities

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) hosted its four-day “HSUHK Careers Fair 2026” from 27 to 30 January under the theme “Ignite Your Path – Dream, Dare, Do.” The event brought together more than 120 renowned local, Greater Bay Area and international enterprises, as well as government departments across over 30 industries. Collectively, they offered students more than 1,500 employment and internship opportunities.

In his address, Professor Simon Ho, President of HSUHK, noted that as AI and emerging technologies evolve rapidly, HSUHK remains committed to nurturing students’ adaptability, resilience and transferable skills. He added that HSUHK also strives to instill the values and mindset essential for future leaders, equipping students to navigate challenges in an increasingly dynamic world.

The Careers Fair further enriched participants’ experience through a series of interview workshops and thematic seminars. Industry leaders were invited to share the latest workplace trends and insights, helping students strengthen their professional readiness and plan their career pathways.
