HSUHK to hold Information Day next Saturday helping students chart their education pathways and build an ideal future

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) will hold its Information Day on 21 November 2026 (Saturday), providing prospective students with the latest information for the 2027-28 academic year. The event will feature a wide range of activities, including programme exhibitions, interactive workshops, AI application showcases, student life tours, admission talks and campus tours. These activities will provide attendees with a thorough understanding of HSUHK's programmes, teaching environment and campus life. The event is open to the public, particularly secondary school students, parents, and teachers, who are encouraged to attend to obtain the latest programme and admission information, helping students plan their further studies and make informed programme choices.

On-site applications and assessments will be available during the event. Eligible applicants who complete all application procedures on the day, including submitting an online application and paying the application fee, may receive a first-round conditional offer as early as December 2026. To accommodate different applicant groups, such as DSE candidates, senior-year students, Mainland Gaokao applicants and students who possess international qualifications, a series of admission talks and Q&A sessions will be conducted, providing the latest admission information for the 2027 intake.

Professor Joshua Mok, President of HSUHK, will deliver a talk titled "Discover HSUHK: Excellence in Teaching and Research, Leading with Care", introducing the University's educational philosophy and distinctive features. Mr Ng Po-shing, Student Guidance Consultant at Hok Yau Club, will host a feature talk titled "Future vs Prestige: How to Choose?". The session will explore the latest trends in further education, highlight common pitfalls students may encounter when selecting their educational paths, suggest ways to avoid them, and discuss the role parents play in their children's educational choices. In addition, Mr Raymond Ip, Chairperson of the Hong Kong Association of Careers Masters and Guidance Masters, will present a thematic talk titled "Selection Strategies for Undergraduate Programmes", sharing admission statistics for the 2026 intake and offering insights into effective programme selection strategies.

Other programme talks and workshops include "Beyond Advertising: How Marketing Prepares You for a Future-Proof Career", "Inside AI: A Hands-On Discovery Workshop" and "Rubbing and Cultural Heritage: An Epigraphic Hands-on Experience".
